Synopsis of novel The Sign of Four (Sir Arthur)

Holmes felt the need to inject cocaine into himself because his brain couldn't stay still because there was no case, making his friend, Watson, who is also a doctor, very worried. Fortunately, Watson's worries did not last long. Mrs. Mary Morstan comes up with a complicated case that puts Holmes' brain at work.

Mary Morstan had a strange occurrence. His father, who promised to meet him, is missing, there is no news. Six years later there was a strange advertisement asking for Mrs. Mary Morstan and sent her a large and beautiful pearl necklace. Since then, every year Marry Morstan has received a shipment of pearls.

On the same day that she met Holmes, Marry Morstan received a letter telling her to come to the Lyceum Theater and that she was allowed to bring two friends. Be with Holmes and Watson. Marry went to the place and was taken to a house where someone named Thaddeus Sholto, a little man who was always nervous was waiting.

Thaddeus Sholto relates that his father and Marry's father got a large amount of Treasure in India. They quarrel over the division of the property and cause Mary's father to die of a heart attack. Sholto's father hid the treasure but he died before he could tell where the treasure was. On the night he died, his room was ransacked by someone and left a piece of paper with the words 'Sign of Four' on it. Feeling guilty about Mary.

Thaddeus sent pearls which were a small part of the treasure which his father did not keep. Until finally Bartholomew (Thaddeus Sholto's brother) managed to find the hiding place of the treasure. And that's why Thaddeus invited Marry to get his right to the treasure.

However, when they went to Bartholomew's house, they found Bartholomew dead in a very strange expression. Thaddeus Sholto made a suspect by Athelny Jones (Local detective with high bullshit levels)

Fortunately, Holmes managed to track down the real killer. With a little help from Toby the tracker and bum Baker Street. Resulting in a chase of two of the fastest ships, a few shots and one blast of poisonous thorns. Thanks to the Long Story Jonathan Small Holmes and his friends managed to uncover the mystery behind the 'Tanda Four' and the Treasure of Agra.
