

ABSTRAK

The formulation of the problem in the Design of the Central Bureau of Statistics Office Area is as follows: How to design the Central Bureau of Statistics office area in Sofifi City using the Neo vernacular post-modern architectural approach How to design the Office facilities of the Central Statistics Agency of North Maluku Province in the city of Sofifi is the secondary data obtained from books, magazines, related to the title as a basis for design reference Primary data, is data that is directly obtained from the field or research location by means of direct observation and experience at the site, as well as visual documentation. Sofifi is a village in North Oba sub-district, Tidore Islands City, North Maluku Province, Indonesia. Sofifi is located on the central axis of Halmahera Island which is the largest island in the Central Bureau of Statistics Office Design. This is an office area that facilitates all the activities of office employees and visitors, with various supporting facilities provided.

Keywords ; Design, Office, BPS, Neo Vernacular, North Maluku, Sofifi.

