

ABSTACT

Fifit I. M Saiid 2019. Exploring Young Learners' Attitude In Learning English At SMP NEGERI 6 KOTA TERNATE. Faculty of teacher Training and Education. The adviors commission are Naniek Jusnita, S. Pd.,M.Pd, at first advisor and Silvani Umar Ali, S.Pd., S.S, M.Hum, as second advisor.

This research aims to find students' attitude of young learners in learning English at SMP NEGERI 6 KOTA TERNATE. This was qualitative research using questioner to collect the data, the subject was 26 students and 30 questions . From the data analysis of young learners' attitudes toward learning english showed that learners mostly exhibited : 4 categories attitudes toward learning english support the idea that young learners' 12 questions, positive (46.15%) and negative (3.84%) related to Attitudes are affected by the teacher. 2 questions, positive (30.76%) and negative (3.84%) related to Favorable teaching conditions. 1 questions, positive (23.07%) and negative (3.84%) related to Positive attitudes towards the learning context and the teacher. and 18 questions, positive (50.%) and negative (3.84%) related to Motivation. because they Most studies focusing on young learners' attitudes suggest that they generally adopt attitudes of their parents, friends, and teachers.

Keywords: attitude of young learners in learning English