

ABSTRACT

Darius Herlanto Saya. 2020. THE ANXIETY OF EVER BLOOM IN THE NOVEL “DARKFLAME” BY ALYSON NOEL (VIEWED FROM PSYCHOLOGICAL APPROACH) (Supervised by Suddin MS Djumadil and Andriani)

This study aims to discuss the anxiety of Ever Bloom in the novel Darkflame by Alyson Noel through a psychological approach. This research focuses on Ever Bloom's anxiety, specifically on the types and causes of anxiety.

This research uses descriptive analysis method to study problems in the form of narration and analysis. This research uses a psychological approach to help understand the anxiety experienced by Ever Bloom. Research on the Darkflame novel set in Laguna Beach, California. This novel discusses a woman who used magic, without realizing it turned out to attack her magic.

The results of this study are the researchers found two types of anxiety from Ever Bloom in the novel Dark Flame, negative experiences in the past. which is experienced by the main character, anxiety is caused due to trauma from a car accident, repeatedly trying to get what he wants.

Keywords:Anxiety, Post traumatic stress disorder, obsessive compulsive disorders.